LONDON, May 6.

THIS is adviſed from Mantua, of the 27th, that notwithſtanding the Superiority of the Enemy's Army, Count Koningſegg appears reſolved to defend all the Poſts which the Imperialiſts now poſſeſs; and that his Army is 33,000 in Number, divided into two Bodies, one of 15,000 on the other Side of the Po, and extended from Fiual, in the Territories of Modena, to St Benedetto, for covering Mirandola; the other on this Side the Po, 18,000 Men, cantoned from St. Giacomo, to that Part oppoſite to St. Benedetto, where a Bridge is laid for a Communication between the two Bodies; and beſides theſe, there are ſome Troops at Canetto, and in the other Parts, on the Oglio; and the Garriſon of Mantua, is compoſed of Militia only and the Magazines are amply furniſhed with Proviſions and all Neceſſaries.

Evan Hugh Jones, who, with his Wife, were apprehended on the 28th of March for the Murder of John Ree a Scots Pedlar near Ludlow, whom they robb'd of Goods to a conſiderable Value, were indicted for the ſaid Fact, at Welſh Pool Aſſizes; another Indictment was likewiſe preferred againſt them for the Murder of John Burkley, another Scotſman, to which Indictment they pleaded Guilty; upon which Sentence of Death was paſſed upon them: The Man is to be hang'd in Chains; as is another Man, for another Murder in the ſame County.

Yeſterday a Cauſe was heard in the Houſe of Peers, wherein John Giffard, Rector of Stoke, near Guilford, in the County of Surrey, was Appellant and John Webb, Occupier of Lands, Reſpondent, in Relation to the Tythe of Lambs, it being the Antient Uſage of the Place, to pay a Modus of 3d for a Lamb, and not Tythe in Kind, and the Decree of the Court of Exchequer was affirmed.

May 7. On Saturday laſt a Carpenter of Tottenham coming to London, to pay a Sum of Money for Timber, was ſet upon and robb'd by a Man on Horſeback, near the Crooked Billet in Clapton, about 10 in the Forenoon, of 20*l.* in the following Manner: The Carpenter being in the Foot Way, the Rogue complained that his Horſe was lame, and deſired him to come and look at his Foot which he readily doing, he knock'd him down with the But End of his Whip, and alighting, clapt a Piſtol to his Head, and threatened to ſhoot him if he did not Part with his Money, which he being obliged to do, the Fellow rode off; and the Carpenter, we hear, has made Affidavit before a Juſtice of the Peace, in order to ſue the County for Recovery of his Money.

Friday 6. Laſt Monday was [illegible] at Penny Bridge, in the County of Lancaſter, James Wilſon, aged 100 Years wanting 12 Days. About 4 Years ago died Timothy Cowarad, aged 114, near the ſame Place, where is now living, Roger Friers, aged 103, in perfect Health.

Yeſterday Morning about two o'Clock one Jones a Soldier belonging to the firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, came to his Mother, who lived in a Cellar in the Strand, and deſiring ſome Money, ſhe alledged ſhe had hardly what was neceſſary for her own Support: Upon which he threw Water upon her, and then beat her in a terrible Manner with his Sword, till the Blade ſeperated from the Hilt; after which he attempted to ſhoot her through the Head, with his Piece; but it miſſing Fire he prim'd it again, and ſhot her thro' the Head, ſo that her Brains flew about the Room.

The Neighbourhood being alarm'd at the Piece going off, he was immediately taken, and ſecured in St. Martin's Round-Houſe, and being afterwards carried before Juſtice De Veil, he confeſſed the Fact, and was committed to Newgate.

The ſame Day five Boys, the eldeſt not 9 Years old, were carried before Juſtice De Veil, for Shoplifting, and after a long Examination were committed to Bridewell.

All Accounts from Poland repreſent King Staniſlaus's Affairs to be at the laſt Extremity, ſince ſince moſt of all his Troops have ſubmitted to King Auguſtus.

The Prince of Lichtenſtein, 'tis ſaid, has prevailed on the King of Pruſſia, for 6000 Men more, to join the Imperial Army on the Rhine; whence 'tis adviſed, that 50,000 Pruſſians, 6000 Danes, 5000 Heſſians, and 6000 Saxons; and they reckon, when all the Auxiliaries and Contingents of the Princes of the Empire, are arrived, the Imperialiſts will be 130,000 ſtrong. They have a large Quantity of Artillery, and expect 19 more Cannon from Wirtzburg, 12 from Nuremberg, and 6 from Ulm; and ſay for certain, that the Generals have formed a Deſign of paſſing the Rhine, and have already laid a flying Bridge over it for that Purpoſe.

Yeſterday the Coroner's Inqueſt ſat on the Body of Mrs. Jones who was barbarouſly murdered by her Son, and brought in their Verdict, Willful Murder; and the Coroner granted his Warrant for her Interrment.

From the Political State for April, 1735.

On the 15 of laſt Month the famous Signior Farinelli, the Singer had his Benefit at the Opera-Houſe in the Hay-Market, where there was a moſt numerous Audience; for the Pit and Galleries were full by 4 o'Clock, and the Stage being done up without any Scenes, as at a Ridotto, and curiouſly adorned with gilt Leather, there were ſeveral hundreds of People in Seats erected there; ſo that it is reckoned he had a moſt extraordinary Benefit; for beſides the uſual Prices of Tickets, His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales gave him 200 Guineas, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador 100, the Emperors Ambaſſador 50, his Grace the Duke of Leeds 50, the Counteſs of Portmore 50, the Lord Burlington 50, his Grace the Duke of Richmond 50, the Hon, Col. Paget 30, the Lady Rich 26, and moſt of the other Nobility 50, 30, or 20, each: In the whole, it is computed he made by his Benefit 2000*l.* and as he has beſides a Salary of 1500*l.* for each Seaſon, and has got ſeveral other Preſents upon extraordinary Occaſions, it may be reckoned he has got at leaſt 4 or 5000*l.* for this Seaſon in England, which will be a laſting Monument of the Politeneſs and Generoſity of the Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction of this Age; and is a Demonſtration, that they can eaſily ſpare, and would certainly chuſe to pay 4 or 5 Shillings, or even ten Shillings in the Pound, out of their yearly Revenues, toward the publick Expence, rather than to have the Poor Labourers or Manufacturers of the Nation charged with Duties and Exciſes on Small-beer, Salt, or any Thing elſe that is abſolutely neceſſary for their Subſiſtance, or for working up the Manufactures they deal in, to which this Nation chiefly owes its preſent Riches, Grandeur and Power.

Dublin, April 6. There being ſome Indian and French Silks now ſelling by Auction in this Town, and two or three Brewers Wives, in the Earl of Meath's Liberty, having bought a few Pieces thereof, the Maſter Weavers and Dyers, as well as Journeymen of their Corporations, gave Notice by beat of Drum, that they would not drink any Liquors whatever, brew'd by the Husbands of the ſaid Ladies, who would encourage foreign Manufactures, when there are Numbers of poor Weavers in a ſtarving Condition in this Town, and all over the Kingdom, for want of Employment.

London. April 18. Yeſterday about two o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Proceſſion of the Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and Accepted Maſons paſſed from Grofvenor-ſquare to Mercers-Hall where a grand Dinner was provided for them. The Proceſſion began in the following Manner, viz. one Kettle-Drum, four Trumpets, two and two; two French Horns; with two Hautboys; and two Baſſoons, all on white Horſes, with Leather Aprons and white Gloves.

After theſe, ſix Coaches, with the twelve Stewards with their white Wands, follow'd by an infinite Number of Gentlemen's Coaches, the Officers of each Lodge being diſtinguiſhed by the proper Badges, of their Office pendent to red Ribbons, or Squares, Levels, Plumets, &c. ſome Silver, others Gold; the Grand Maſter and Grand Wardens cloſing the Proceſſion.

May 12. They write from Breconſhire, that Two Men were committed to Goal, for being concern'd with a Gang of about 15, in attempting to rob the Houſe of Sir Humphry Howarth, Bart. Member of Parliament for the County of Radnor, but were prevented, by Occaſion of the Kennel of Hounds being let out that Night about the Houſe, who diſturb'd the Rogues ſo much, that it alarm'd the Family. 'Tis ſuppos'd the Rogues loiter'd about the Houſe ſome Time; for in about two Hours after, as ſoon as Day appeared, the Huntſman took four Couple of the Hounds, cheriſh'd them with a Huntſman's Halloo, and put them on the Foot Scent of the Rogues: The Hounds ſoon took the Scent, and merrily cry'd it near three Miles, to a Cottage, where the Fellows rendezvous'd. The Huntſman try'd the Hounds beyond the Cottage, but they would go on no further; upon which the Servants and Country People, who follow'd the Hounds, enter'd the Houſe and took two of them, the reſt making their Eſcape. The Cottage was found to be well ſtor'd with Proviſions, and great Quantities of Goods which they had ſtolen in the Neighbourhood.

Boſton, June 30. We have Advice from Cape Fare, that Capt. Merret, who ſail'd from this Town ſome time ſince in a Brigt. for that Place, was attacked on his Voyage by a Number of Negroes in a ſmall Sloop which they had run away with from the ſaid Cape, but were overcome by the People on board the Brigt. and carried in, where ſome of them were hanged for Examples to others, who ſhould attempt the like for the future. 'Tis ſaid they were for the Spaniſh Coaſt to enrich themthemſelves, but happened to be nab'd before they had taken a Penny worth of Spoil.

July 7. At the commencement at Cambridge on Friday laſt, 59 young Gentlemen received their Degrees, viz 38 Bachelors, and 21 Maſters, on which Occaſion a vaſt Number of People aſſembled there, notwithſtanding all the Care that had been taken to keep it private. 'Tis ſaid the Meeting Houſe was ſo prodigiouſly crowded; that the Galleries were in Danger of falling; and ſeveral Perſons were ſo apprehenſive of their Danger, that they jumped out at the Windows, and others with great Difficulty got out thro' the Doors; And tho' no Miſchief enſued, yet there will doubtleſs be ſome Caution taken for the better ſecuring the Houſe for the future, if there ſhould ever be another Private Commencement.

Friday laſt as 2 poor Men were drawing a Bucket of Water out of a Draw Well in the Alms Houſe, one of them, named Gould, ſaid to be a little diſorderd in his Mind, happened to fall in with his Head foremoſt, upon which the Bucket was preſently let down, and he putting his Arm thro' the Handle, was drawn up, and tho' the Well was 70 Feet deep, and had 15 Feet of Water in it, yet he received little or no Damage.

July 14. On Tueſday laſt two French Men came to this Town by Land, in a miſerable ragged condition, (worſe than Gibeonites) tho' plump and in good Caſe of Body, who tell the following Story, viz. That having ſome Years paſt been placed as Soldiers in a Fort at New Orleans, 12 Leagues from the Mouth of the River Miſſiſippi, in the Gulf of Mexico, they were afterwards with others removed to another Fort 300 Miles farther up the ſaid River, where they continued about 9 Months in great want of Proviſions and other Neceſſaries; and after frequent Complaints to the Officers for Redreſs of their Grievances, they were told, that if they would have Proviſion, they muſt go and get it in the Woods with the Indians: Upon which five of them determined to deſert, and endeavour to get to ſome Engliſh Settlement, chuſing rather to run the Venture of being catch'd and hang'd, than to ſtay there and be ſtarv'd. Accordingly (having furniſhed themſelves with Ammunition and other Things neceſſary for ſo long a Journey) they ſet out the 2d of January laſt, and have been ever ſince travelling to theſe Parts, having met with abundance of Difficulties by Reaſon of Lakes and Rivers which they were obliged to raft over, with other Impediments; having nothing to eat but what they kill'd in the Woods. They all came together as far as Albany, where three of them ſtood away for Philadelphia, in hopes to get a Paſſage for England, and from thence for France, as the other two did for this Place, for the ſame Purpoſe. They were about 6 Months in preforming this Journey, which is ſaid to be full 1500 Miles. They report, that the French have Settlements all along upon the above-mentioned River, for 500 Miles above Orleans, and that they are pretty numerous.

About a Fortnight or 3 Weeks ago, 6 French Men came here from Canada, having (as they ſaid) deſerted from one of the Garriſons there, to avoid the Hardſhips and Abuſes which they ſuffered by the ill Behaviour of the Officers. They are ſince gone in a Ship for London, in order to get to France: And laſt Week 2 more Canada Deſerters (as they call themſelves) came to Town in order to get a Paſſage Home.

Friday laſt a Seafaring Man of this Town came home, who had been abſent from his Family 10 or 11 Years, either on board Men of War, or a Priſoner in Sallee, where he had the Misfortune to be kept between 2 and 3 Year. When he came in, he found his Wife dreſſing herſelf up to be married to a Shoemaker that very Evening. She was greatly ſurpriſed to be thus diſappointed, was extreamly clamorous, and even Rude towards her Husband, and could by no Means be brought to own him, tho' he was well known by moſt of the Neighbours, and ſhe was advis'd to receive him by a great Number of honeſt Women, who were met on the Occaſion, and who happened to be all on his Side. However, the good Man (by Advice of the Matrons) went to Bed to his Child, and his Wife ſat up all Night in a very diſcontented Frame. Criſpin upon the Arrival of the Sailor, generouſly quitted all his Pretentions to the Woman, ſaying, Let the right Owner take her; which 'tis thought did not a little contribute towards a Reconciliation between her and her Husband; for the next Day, having ſhaved and bruſh'd himſelf up, and told her of ſeveral Sums he had Orders to receive in Town, with ſome other favourable Circumſtances, ſhe began to fancy ſhe had ſeen him before, and did not know but he might be her Husband, and there is Reaſon to hope, that ſhe has got over all her Scruples before this Time.
